TEXAS WOMAN'S UNIVERSITY

Distinguished Alumni Award Nomination Packet

The Texas Woman's University Alumni Association bestows the Distinguished Alumni Award at the Accolades Awards Luncheon during Homecoming. This packet is required for any person nominated for the Distinguished Alumni Award.

Distinguished Alumni Award

The Distinguished Alumni Award is the most prestigious distinction presented to TWU alumni who have brought honor to themselves and Texas Woman's University through their outstanding accomplishments and notable contributions to society.

The selection criteria for this award include:

- At least one degree from Texas Woman's University.
- Professional experience.
- Publications, research, artistic endeavors.
- Volunteer service to the profession and/or the community.
- Honors and awards.
- Leadership roles.
- Support of the University since graduation through, for example, participation in the TWU Alumni Association, involvement with students and/or service with an academic department.

Please Note

Persons who are employed by TWU, members of the TWU Alumni Association Board of Directors, members of the TWU Board of Regents, members of the state legislature and others directly related to the regulation of higher education in the State of Texas are not eligible. These individuals are eligible five years after completing their service.
