

Policies, Politics, and Reproductive Justice

Wednesday, March 6, 2019

FAIR: 10 am –2 pm, Student Union, 2nd Floor

EXPERT PANEL: 4 pm –6 pm, CFO 202

Expert Panel with Q&A

TWU students deserve to be informed about their reproductive health and wellbeing. In this panel, scholars, activists, and medical providers will help students understand the politics and policies that directly impact their reproductive health.

FREE PIZZA PROVIDED

Reproductive Justice Fair

Browse tables with community resources related to

- ♦ sexuality education
- ♦ breastfeeding
- ♦ maternal health
- ♦ birth control
- ♦ STI/STD prevention and care
- ♦ low-cost healthcare
- ♦ on-campus resources
- ♦ reproductive rights
- ♦ influencing the political process

PHOTO BOOTH • DOOR PRIZES

Reproductive Justice

Sponsored by Multicultural Women's and Gender Studies and the Women's Studies Graduate Student Association.

In conjunction with Global Connections, celebrating International Women's Day.

Questions? Contact Esther Ajayi-Lowo, eajayilowo@twu.edu

