

TOUCHSTONE HONORS PROGRAM TEXAS WOMAN'S UNIVERSITY

Application

Program Purpose

This program is a pathway to an honors education for students who have not been involved in honors at any previous institution. We seek individuals with a wide breadth of strengths. Touchstone Honors students are curious and involved critical thinkers dedicated to developing themselves personally and professionally so that they may have a greater impact on the world. We offer opportunities to engage in volunteerism, research, study abroad, social and cultural engagement, and so much more. While our students are bright and academically gifted, our program requirements extend beyond academics.
