

Application for Course Overload

For Undergraduate Students

University policy:

An undergraduate student may not enroll for more than 19 semester credit hours during a fall or spring semester, or more than 17 semester credit hours during the cumulative summer semester. Exceptions require the approval of the departmental chairperson, program director, or associate dean. Exceptions will be considered only if additional course work is in the best interests of the student, when the student is in good academic standing, and has a grade point average of 3.0 or higher for the last two semesters. Students are expected to prepare for classes with a minimum of two to three hours of study for each credit hour.
